

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

DMS2320 Clinical II
6 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Analyze scanning skills to begin a successful career as a diagnostic medical sonographer.
 - a. Apply physics as it relates to ultrasound system instrumentation.
 - b. Identify anatomy as it relates to patient's sonographic exams.
 2. Demonstrate effective verbal and non-verbal communication skills with patient, family, and staff to provide patient care and comfort.
 - a. Use HIPPA policies, and patient identifiers.
 - b. Develop skills to access electronic health record systems.
 - c. Obtain a pertinent medical history from a patient.
 - d. Examine proper ergonomics while scanning patients.
 - e. Assist the sonographer in completing ultrasound impressions/worksheets.
 3. Inspect the various types of ultrasound exams performed and appropriate indications.
 - a. Distinguish sonographic anomalies and pathology.
-

Required Elements

RE 1. Obtain a minimum of 512 clinical hours

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017