

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

HSC3110 Health Law and Regulations
3 Semester Credit Hours

---

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Summarize the laws that affect the administration and delivery of healthcare.
  - a. Examine healthcare law and regulations.
  - b. Predict how various infractions of criminal law by healthcare professional's impact healthcare.
  - c. Outline litigation processes and procedures within the healthcare setting.
  - d. Correlate the relevance of contractual agreements and obligations in healthcare.
  - e. Illustrate ethical behavior in a healthcare setting as it relates to laws that affect the administration and delivery of healthcare.
  - f. Evaluate legal and ethical issues facing healthcare professionals.

2. Relate healthcare regulations to the laws affecting delivery of healthcare.
  - a. Evaluate the legal responsibilities of all healthcare stakeholders.
  - b. Explain the requirements for managing and maintaining healthcare records
  - c. Summarize legal reporting obligations required by healthcare professionals.
  - d. Analyze tort law to include malpractice, insurance laws and regulations, and risk management.
  - e. Discriminate employee issues in the healthcare industry to include labor laws, labor relations, and employee management relations

---

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2020