

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

HSC 4010 Healthcare Administration
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Examine today's healthcare perspective and challenges that are currently transforming our Healthcare landscape.
 - a. Explore the history and current milieu of U.S. healthcare as well as the ever changing infrastructure of the health service industry.
 - b. Explore the rich history of healthcare theories and models and their importance of leading teams.
 - c. Investigate new ways of improving processes within a healthcare organization.

 2. Critique a variety of leadership and management styles.
 - a. Identify your own style and how to use it to create a productive working environment/team within a variety of healthcare settings.
 - b. Use a variety of healthcare management tools, such as: talent management, organizational skills, supervision and coaching techniques to effectively lead across organizations, department and work groups.
 - c. Explore the variety of functions of the new Manager/Leader and how to effectively perform those functions for the success of an organization and career advancement.
 - d. Analyze the different levels of authority to delegate, discipline, motivate and improve morale among work groups.
 - e. Distinguish the role of the leader in a process to bring about change.
 - f. Apply critical thinking skills and innovative solutions to strategic planning.
 - g. Demonstrate how to inspire individuals, acquire organizational excellence, create a shared vision and successfully manage change.
-

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017