

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

HSC 4110 Seminar in Health Issues
3 Semester Hours

---

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Utilize knowledge, skills, and strategies gained in this program to solve a healthcare services problem.
    - a. Identify a gap or a need within your chosen healthcare service field.
    - b. Demonstrate leadership skills through management functions (planning, organizing, leading and controlling) in healthcare decision-making situations.
    - c. Utilize skills of planning, budgeting, financial reporting, implementing, and evaluating to formulate solutions to management problems.
    - d. Utilize knowledge in health law and regulations to formulate solutions to health management problems.
    - e. Evaluate decisions and situations within a healthcare setting that may have ethical implications and how to deal with them accordingly.
    - f. Communicate ideas effectively, be able to comprehend information, and respond appropriately and efficiently, within a healthcare setting.
    - g. Demonstrate professional behaviors and attitudes that promote success in the workplace as well as effective social interaction with diverse populations across a range of situations.
-

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017