

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

BUS 7520 Healthcare Administration
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Evaluate trends and developments of management in the healthcare system.
2. Evaluate and assess organizational design and change in the healthcare industry.
3. Evaluate and assess trends in healthcare information technology.
4. Evaluate and judge factors that influence problem solving and decision making.
5. Assess the link between strategic planning and marketing.
6. Assess and interpret Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI) and its application in competitive position and resource allocation.
7. Recognize the importance of human resources management in healthcare organizations.
8. Understand and apply basic ethical theories in the management of relationships within the healthcare industry, and the impact of the legal environment.
9. Evaluate and assess theories of motivation, leadership and communication.

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017