

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

CRJ 2610 Security Management
3 Semester Credit Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Analyze risk management as it pertains to the security profession.
 - a. Discuss the importance of training security personnel.
 - b. Determine the criteria needed for hiring practices.
 - c. Explore the role of technology in security.
 - d. Describe ethical practices in security.
 - e. Examine the impact of security on society.

2. Examine the various forms of security.
 - a. Investigate the job expectations of security personnel in retail, the private sector, large corporations, and industrial companies.
 - b. Discuss the various types of employment within the security profession, including executive protection.

3. Communicate with confidence and competence in all aspects of the security profession.
 - a. Practice interviewing suspects.
 - b. Write incident reports involving a possible incident or crime.
 - c. Discuss probable cause.
 - d. Explore the types of technologies involved in the security profession.
 - e. Describe the importance of ethical behavior in communication.

4. Investigate the importance of safety for customers and employees.
 - a. Discuss the need for an emergency plan.
 - b. Describe the ways in which security can address safety issues related to disaster handling.
 - c. Explore how Homeland Security influences safety.

5. Identify the different types of risk one may face in a security setting.
 - a. Examine how policies and procedures can mitigate risk.
 - b. Examine the legal impact of decision-making.

- c. Discuss ethical issues involved with security.
- d. Describe how the fundamentals of law enforcement relate to security.
- e. Explore how to serve and protect in a security setting impacts the public and society.

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Risk Management
- Security
- Communication Skills
- Safety
- Security Law & Procedures

Essential Questions

1. How do we mitigate risks in the workplace?
2. What role do security personnel play?

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017