

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
HIM3110 Privacy and Security Management
3 Semester Credit Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Research privacy and security rules and regulations that apply to healthcare.
 - a. Describe the HIPAA security rule.
 - b. Describe the HIPAA privacy rule.
 - c. Explain how the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) regulations are utilized in medical records.

2. Explain how to minimize risk surrounding data management in healthcare.
 - a. Identify types of risk and data protection measures utilized in HIM.
 - b. Investigate privacy and security tools that can be implemented to mitigate risk including a risk assessment.

3. Develop a framework that incorporates policies to protect patient data.
 - a. Research applicable regulations related to healthcare privacy and security.
 - b. Investigate ethical challenges and resolutions.
 - c. Create policies that promote ideal ethical outcomes.
 - d. Design a reporting process (i.e. fraud, neglect, abuse, breach of confidentiality).

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Privacy and security rules and regulations
- Data risk management
- Data management framework

Essential Questions

1. How do privacy and security regulations drive data management?
 2. How does a HIM professional minimize risk of data management?
 3. How does a HIM professional develop a framework to protect patient data?
-

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2024