

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

HIT2310 Health Information Management
1 Semester Hours

---

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Explain policies and procedures of networks, including Intranet and Internet to facility clinical and administrative applications (III.A.2)
    - a. Explain communication and network technologies (EHR, PHR, HIEs, portals, public health, standards, telehealth)
  2. Explain the process used in the selection and implementation of health information management systems (III.B.1)
    - a. Explain strategic planning process, integration of systems, and information management strategic plan
  3. Utilize health information to support enterprise-wide decision support for strategic planning (III.B.2)
    - a. Identify business planning, market share planning, disaster, and recovery planning
  4. Explain usability and accessibility of health information by patients, including current trends and future challenges (III.F.1)
    - a. Illustrate mobile technologies, patient portals, patient education, outreach, patient safety, PHRs, and patient navigation
  5. Explain current trends and future challenges in health information exchange (III.G.1)
    - a. Illustrate exchange/sharing of health information (i.e. employer to health provider, facility to facility)
  6. Apply information and data strategies in support of information governance initiatives (VI.F.4)
    - a. Identify information and data strategy methods and techniques
  7. Apply knowledge of database architecture and design (VI.K.1)
    - a. Identify data capture tools and interoperability functionality
-

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Spring 2018