

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

HIT 2350A Reimbursement Methodologies
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Analyze components of revenue cycle management and clinical documentation improvement. (IV.2, IV.3)(Bloom's 4)
 - a. Examine payment methodologies and systems including capitation, Prospective Payment Systems (PPS), Resource Based Relative Value Scale (RBRVS), case mix, MS-DRGs, healthcare insurance policies, and insurance claims (i.e. CMS-1500, UB-04).
 - b. Explore case management/coordinated care.
 - c. Summarize regulatory requirements and reimbursement methodologies.
 2. Evaluate revenue cycle management processes, compliance with regulatory requirements and reimbursement methodologies. (IV.2.RM, IV.3.RM)(Bloom's 5)
 - a. Assess reimbursement processes and procedures (i.e. Case mix management, Discharged Not Final Billed, Chargemaster maintenance, Computer-assisted Coding, POA and HACs).
-

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit. The HIT program is accredited and students must complete the actual course work at Baker College or another college that offers an accredited HIT program.

Effective: Spring 2021