

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

HSC3110 Health Law and Regulations
3 Semester Credit Hours

---

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Summarize the laws affecting the administration and delivery of healthcare.
  - a. Examine healthcare law and regulations.
  - b. Predict how various infractions of criminal law by healthcare professional's impact healthcare.
2. Outline litigation processes and procedures within the healthcare setting.
  - a. Correlate the relevance of contractual agreements and obligations in healthcare.
  - b. Illustrate ethical behavior in a healthcare setting relating to laws affecting the administration and delivery of healthcare.
  - c. Explain legal and ethical issues facing healthcare professionals.
3. Relate healthcare regulations to the laws affecting delivery of healthcare.
4. Evaluate the legal responsibilities of all healthcare stakeholders.
  - a. Explain the requirements for managing and maintaining healthcare records.
  - b. Summarize legal reporting obligations required by healthcare professionals.
  - c. Analyze tort law to include malpractice, insurance laws and regulations, and risk management.
  - d. Identify employee issues in the healthcare industry including labor laws, labor relations, and employee management relations.

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Health Care Laws
- Health Care Litigation
- Health Care Regulations

Essential Questions

1. Why is it essential to know health care laws?
  2. Why is it important to understand health care litigation processes and procedures?
  3. How can you demonstrate competency in health care regulations?
-

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2023