

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
HUS4110 Institutional Treatment and Alternative
Settings in Human Services
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Distinguish between the various forms and settings for therapeutic intervention.
 - a. Identify the therapeutic setting that most fits with your personal ideology
 - b. Compare and contrast the benefits of various treatment settings or environments.
 - c. Evaluate the concept and the implementation of "least restrictive environment."
 - d. Assess the roles and the importance of teams in various therapeutic settings.
 2. Identify and differentiate between the various significant populations a worker may encounter.
 - a. Analyze cultural issues as they may impact various therapeutic settings.
 3. Evaluate the basic principles of behavioral therapy and behavioral contracts.
 - a. Determine an effective behavioral plan for a client.
 4. Evaluate the process of referral to various treatment situations and how those treatments are financially supported.
 - a. Assess overall case management services.
 - b. Identify importance of case assessment and documentation.
 5. Analyze the danger of potential suicidal threats and be aware of the appropriate action.
 - a. Examine aspects of training and development of human services professionals.
 6. Identify theories and principles of home visitation practices
 - a. Explore the attributes and administrative aspects of the home visitation professional.
 - b. Identify safety and occupational hazards involved in home visitation.
-

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017