

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

MGT2310 Management Information Systems
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Evaluate a decision-making model to manage people, processes, and technology related to management information systems.
 - a. Determine the value of information systems for your organization.
 - b. Evaluate the people, processes, and technology integration of your organization.
 - c. Detect areas for improvement in the people, processes, and technology integration of your organization.
 - d. Implement a sustainable process for the people, processes, and technology integration of your organization.
 2. Determine how the organization, management, and technology dimensions differ.
 - a. Explain people, process, structure, and culture of the organization.
 - b. Explain decision-making, planning, communication, and data analysis of the organization.
 - c. Explain hardware, software, data, storage, and networking of the organization.
 - d. Describe the history of Management Information Systems (MIS) and relate it to the current state of your organization and future MIS plans.
 3. Implement ethical decision-making related to management information systems.
 - a. Describe the ethical decision-making process related to crisis management for MIS.
 - b. Describe the ethical decision-making process related to public relations for MIS.
 - c. Describe the ethical decision-making process related to security/privacy issues for MIS.
 - d. Describe the ethical decision-making process related to political/social issues for MIS.
 - e. Describe the ethical decision-making process related to social media and social media outlet issues for MIS.
-

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- People
- Processes
- Technology

Essential Questions

1. What is data?
2. What role is technology going to play in our business in the future?
3. What are information systems?
4. What role do ethics and morality play in management information systems?
5. How do we use people, processes, and technology to collect, evaluate, and make decisions using data?
6. How do you determine the integrity of your process?
7. Why do some organizations gain greater value out of information systems compared to other organizations?

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Summer 2020