

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

MIS 5110 Management Information Systems
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Articulate the roles that various stakeholders play in the organizational use and management of information systems (IS)
2. Analyze the functions and inter-relationships of information system components
3. Categorize different types of information systems from various perspectives
4. Analyze the scopes and relationships of various types of information systems
5. Evaluate the impacts of changing information technologies on organizations
6. Analyze the strategic role of information systems and strategic information systems planning process
7. Analyze the use of information systems and technology to create value
8. Understand the funding and governance of information systems
9. Develop recommendations of custom software design and development versus acquisition of an off-the-shelf product
10. Describe information system development methodologies
11. Evaluate the impacts of emerging information systems trends in the business context
12. Analyze issues related to information system security, privacy, and ethics
13. Communicate considerations pertaining to information systems to internal and external stakeholders

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Summer 2020