

BAKER COLLEGE
Student Learning Outcomes

NUR 5610 Health Care Systems, Policy & Advocacy
3 Semester Credit Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Propose strategies the advanced practice nurse may employ to influence regulatory, legislative, and public policy to promote health and prevent disease.
 - a. Identify a relevant health care issue that can be impacted by public policy.
 - b. Develop a policy brief that integrates evidence to make recommendations for policy.
 - c. Present the policy brief to classmates and key policy makers.
 2. Examine contemporary and emerging healthcare policy issues and the impact these present to the delivery of health care services.
 - a. Identify a health topic that impacts health care delivery systems.
 - b. Critically analyze cultural, legal, economic, political, ethical, and leadership aspects of the issue and how it affects nursing practice and health care delivery.
 - c. Propose health policy solutions to address the selected issue.
 3. Articulate the global trends and issues in healthcare that impact health policy, advocacy and health care systems.
 - a. Debate the impact of US policy on global health issues and trends.
-

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Global Healthcare delivery systems
- Nurses as advocates for healthcare policy
- The impact public policy has on healthcare delivery
- Economic, social, and ethical issues that impact health care policy

Essential Questions

1. How can advanced practice nurses serve as a public health advocate and influence health policy?
2. What is the relationship between health care economics, ethics, and social trends on public policy and healthcare delivery?
3. What impact can the United States have on global health care trends and issues?

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2020