

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

NUR6310 Academic Nurse Educator
3 Semester Credit Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Examine the role of the nurse educator in the academic setting.
 - a. Discuss economic, social, and ethical issues that impact nursing education.
 - b. Present strategies to support diverse learning needs of nursing students.
 - c. Discuss the process of curriculum development.
 - d. Propose strategies for promoting civility in nursing education.

2. Design engaged learning experiences in your clinical area of specialization.
 - a. Examine theories of teaching and learning.
 - b. Propose strategies for engaged learning.
 - c. Discuss the role of technology in nursing education.
 - d. Develop a simulation experience in your area of clinical specialization.

3. Develop evaluation methods for student and program outcomes.
 - a. Develop strategies for student evaluation.
 - b. Propose a plan for program evaluation.

4. Connect evaluation results to student and program improvement.
 - a. Determine program data that will inform continuous program improvement.
 - b. Articulate the process of continuous program improvement.

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Nurse educator role
- Economic, social, and ethical issues
- Curriculum development and delivery
- Student and program evaluation

Essential Questions

1. What are the responsibilities of the nurse educator in the academic setting?
 2. What are effective teaching and learning strategies in nursing education?
 3. How can evaluation results be used to improve curriculum and student outcomes?
-

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Spring 2021