

BAKER COLLEGE

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

OTA2710 Level I Fieldwork A
1 Semester Credit Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Demonstrate professional behaviors in a clinical or community setting.
 - a. Observe and describe time management and work habits that are appropriate for the setting.
 - b. Demonstrate the OTA's role within an interdisciplinary team.
 - c. Collaborate in following safe procedures during all fieldwork activities.
2. Articulate the role of the OTA's Scope of Practice and State Laws.
 - a. Explain OTA supervision guidelines.
 - b. Follow ethical practice guidelines established by the AOTA.
3. Collaborate with the occupational therapist and learner to identify appropriate educational methods.
 - a. Explain the teaching-learning process
 - b. Present a case study to peers and course instructor.
4. Understand the OT process referencing the OTPF.
 - a. Explain the OT process.
 - b. Explain client outcomes related to OT practice models and frames of reference.
 - c. Articulate the role of evidence-based practice in treatment planning, intervention and outcomes.
5. Articulate psychological and social client factors that influence engagement in occupations.
 - a. Consider supports and barriers to occupational engagement
 - b. Identify interventions that promote social participation in occupational engagement.

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Professional behaviors
- Scope of Practice
- Teaching and learning

- OT Process in various settings
- Psychological and Social skill development

Essential Questions

1. How does an OTA demonstrate professional behaviors?
2. How does an OTA demonstrate the Scope of Practice referencing the OTPF?
3. How does the OTA collaborate in the teaching and learning processes with clients and others?
4. How does the OTA participate in the evaluation, assessment and the intervention process?
5. How does the OTA describe the engagement in occupations related to psychological and social skills?

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2022