

BAKER COLLEGE
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

SOC 2210 Cultural Diversity
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Compare and contrast the characteristics of social institutions as it applies to minority groups within the United States.
 - a. Explore diverse groups, cultures, and traditions within the United States.
 - b. Assess the relationship between ethnic diversity and religious pluralism.
 2. Evaluate the relationships between prejudice and discrimination.
 - a. Compare and contrast the forms of prejudice and discrimination experienced by minority groups.
 - b. Analyze major theories of prejudice.
 - c. Analyze the major theories of discrimination.
 - d. Analyze the process of stereotyping.
 - e. Discuss the concepts of individual and institutional discrimination.
 3. Analyze dominant/subordinate group characteristics and the implications for power and privilege.
 - a. Apply the concepts of fusion, assimilation, inclusion, and pluralism to various subordinate groups.
 - b. Differentiate between biological and social constructs of identity within the socio-historical context.
 - c. Explain tolerance and its role in a pluralistic society.
 4. Compare and contrast the histories and contemporary status of minority groups.
 - a. Explore economic, political, and social histories
 - b. Explore education, family, religion, and pop culture.
 - c. Apply histories and contemporary status of minority groups to social life.
-

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2020